WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY ANNOUNCE WINNERS
OF FIRST ANNUAL TECHNOLOGY EXPO
*NewVision Health and CYN CZ Receive Top Honors

FAIRFAX, Va. – September 23, 2009 - Women in Technology (WIT), the premier organization contributing to the success of professional women in the Greater Washington, D.C. technology community, today announced the winners of the first annual WIT Technology Expo, held on September 17, 2009 at the Ritz Carlton in McLean, VA. Winners were selected by attendees of the Expo and recognized at the end of the event. The awards were presented by Paul Sherman, editor and publisher of The Potomac TechWire.

The “Best in Show” award went to NewVision Health (www.newvisionhealth.com) and was accepted by CEO Dede Haskins. NewVision Health offers a software product that provides fully integrated multimedia patient education, entertainment, and communication capabilities at the hospital bedside for patients and their families.

The “Most Innovative” award went to CYN CZ, Inc., (www.cyncz.com) and was accepted by CEO Jaya Pandey. CYN CZ provides a subscription-based service that synchronizes your contact information across emails, phones, social networks and CRM systems so that your contacts are accessed on any source or device, at any time.

“The success of our first annual Technology Expo exceeded our expectations,” said Toni Townes-Whitley, President of WIT. “The first of its kind, the WIT Tech Expo offered companies in the Washington area an opportunity to showcase their new and emerging technologies, expand their understanding of market opportunities and how to acquire capital, and be recognized on the basis of their innovation. WIT would like to congratulate our award winners. Both companies, in addition to all of our exhibitors, are a testament to the vibrant technology community that exists in the Washington metro area.

About Women in Technology

Women in Technology (WIT) is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to offering women involved in all levels of the technology industry a wide range of professional development and networking opportunities. One of the organization's main goals is to create a forum where women in technology can be recognized and promoted as role models. The organization's values are embodied in its tag line: Connect. Lead. Succeed. WIT was founded in 1994 and has nearly 1,000 members. For more information, please visit WIT's web site, www.womenintechology.org.
